Munde resigns from Fadnavis govt after aide's murder link

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Monday with deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good...the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

AT A TIME when Opposition THE DELHI HIGH Court on parties have alleged irregulari-Tuesday granted bail to Christies in the electoral rolls, Chief tian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the Commissioner AgustaWestland VVIP chop-Gyanesh Kumar on Tuesday asked all state Chief Electoral per case who was extradited Officers (CEOs), District Elecfrom the UAE in 2018 - in ation Officers (DEOs) and Elecmoney laundering case registoral Registration Officers tered by the Enforcement (EROs) to meet political parties Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

Michel's lawyers said he was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period. Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of seven years, without even being held guilty, the court said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution."

On February 18, the Supreme Court had also pointed to the delay in trial while granting bail to Michel in the CBI case.

Intern scheme may tap local talent

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity.

Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only 28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000 per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants," she added.

Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said.

In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table. Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently. In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good... the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

Delhi HC grants bail to Michel

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 - in amoney laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of seven years, without even said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have Michel's lawyers said he also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution."

On February 18, the being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also pointed to the delay in trial while granting bail to Michel in the CBI case.

Intern scheme may tap local talent

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity.

Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said. FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground. Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants, she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to

of the industry," he said. In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 28,141 candidates accepted 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently. In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

AFTER BEED SARPANCH MURDER PHOTOS EMERGE

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impar-December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as tial probe" into the murder on one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote. He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good...the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

CEC to poll officers: Meet parties and resolve issues

New Delhi, March 4

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

AT A TIME when Opposition parties have alleged irregularities in the electoral rolls, Chief Commissioner Election Gyanesh Kumar on Tuesday asked all state Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs), District Election Officers (DEOs) and Electoral Registration Officers (EROs) to meet political parties regularly to resolve their issues.

Addressing the first CEOs' conference since assuming office last month, Kumar asked all officials to work in a transparent manner and as per the framework of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 & 1951, the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 and the EC's instructions. "He directed officials to be approachable and responsive to political parties. He added that all-party meetings at all statutory levels be held regularly to resolve any issues within the existing statutory framework by the concerned competent authority i.e. ERO or DEO or CEO," an EC statement said.

Kumar asked the CEOs to submit an action-taken report by March 31. The CEC also said that the Booth Level Officers should be trained to behave courteously with electors, while also making sure that no electoral officer is "intimidated by anyone using false claims".

AGUSTAWESTLAND CASE

Delhi HC grants bail to Michel

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 — in a money laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

Michel's lawyers said he was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of Constitution." seven years, without even being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the

ond round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity. Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

time allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,"

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said.

In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently.

In late 2023, Nissan Motor Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

Sources said that many comdidate mobility, they said.

In the first round, only internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

time allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to

of the industry," he said. In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 28,141 candidates accepted 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently. In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde. Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good... the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet." Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 - in amoney laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of seven years, without even being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaning-

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution."

On February 18, the pointed to the delay in trial while granting bail to Michel in the CBI case.

Intern scheme may tap local talent

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity.

Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants, she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said. In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 28,141 candidates accepted 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently. In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut

9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good... the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

Sources said that many comdidate mobility, they said.

In the first round, only internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

time allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to

of the industry," he said. In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 28,141 candidates accepted 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impar-December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as tial probe" into the murder on one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good...the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

AGUSTAWESTLAND CASE

Delhi HC grants bail to Michel

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 — in a money laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

Michel's lawyers said he was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of Constitution." seven years, without even being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the

Intern scheme may tap local talent EXPERTS SAID THAT more per month in addition to a one-

changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity. Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns. In the first round, only

28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana. The candidates from other

time allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants," she added.

Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity

In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently. In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impar-December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as tial probe" into the murder on one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened,"

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and the chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good...the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

CEC to poll officers: Meet parties and resolve issues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, March 4

AT A TIME when Opposition parties have alleged irregularities in the electoral rolls, Chief Commissioner Election Gyanesh Kumar on Tuesday asked all state Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs), District Election Officers (DEOs) and Electoral Registration Officers (EROs) to meet political parties regularly to resolve their issues.

Addressing the first CEOs' conference since assuming office last month, Kumar asked all officials to work in a transparent manner and as per the framework of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 & 1951, the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 and the EC's instructions.

"He directed officials to be approachable and responsive to political parties. He added that all-party meetings at all statutory levels be held regularly to resolve any issues within the existing statutory framework by the concerned competent authority i.e. ERO or DEO or CEO," an EC statement said.

Kumar asked the CEOs to submit an action-taken report by March 31. The CEC also said that the Booth Level Officers should be trained to behave courteously with electors, while also making sure that no electoral officer is "intimidated by anyone using false claims".

AGUSTAWESTLAND CASE

Delhi HC grants bail to Michel

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 — in a money laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

Michel's lawyers said he was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of Constitution." seven years, without even being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity. Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only 28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,"

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said.

In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Munde resigns from Fadnavis govt after aide's murder link

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Monday with deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good...the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision. Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

AGUSTAWESTLAND CASE CEC to poll officers: Meet

parties and resolve issues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, March 4

AT A TIME when Opposition parties have alleged irregularities in the electoral rolls, Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar on Tuesday asked all state Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs), District Election Officers (DEOs) and Electoral Registration Officers (EROs) to meet political parties regularly to resolve their issues. Addressing the first CEOs' conference since assuming office last month. Kumar asked all officials to work in a transparent manner and as per the framework of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 & 1951, the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 and the EC's instructions.

"He directed officials to be approachable and responsive to political parties. He added that all-party meetings at all statutory levels be held regularly to resolve any issues within the existing statutory framework by the concerned competent authority i.e. ERO or DEO or CEO," an EC statement said.

Kumar asked the CEOs to submit an action-taken report by March 31. The CEC also said that the Booth Level Officers courteously with electors, while also making sure that no electoral officer is "intimidated by anyone using false claims".

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 - in amoney laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

Michel's lawyers said he was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period. Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of seven years, without even being held guilty, the court said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaning-

less"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution." On February 18, the Supreme Court had also pointed to the delay in trial while granting bail to Michel in the CBI case.

Intern scheme may tap local talent

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity. Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only 28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana.

The candidates from other parts of the country were not willing to locate to these states as the stipend was low — ₹5,000

per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer, less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,"

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well."The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said.

In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in independently. Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business

In late 2023, Nissan Motor Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

अमित शाह सात मार्च को सीआइएसएफ की साइकिल रैली को दिखाएंगे हरी झंडी

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च।

केंद्रीय गृह मंत्री अमित शाह सात मार्च को केंद्रीय औद्योगिक सुरक्षा बल (सीआइएसएफ) की 6553 किलोमीटर की यात्रा तय करने वाली साइकिल रैली को हरी झडी दिखाएंगे। सीआइएसएफ के 56वें स्थापना दिवस के अवसर पर आयोजित यह साइकिल रैली देश के पश्चिमी और पूर्वी समुद्री तटों से होकर

गुजरेगी जिसके तहत यह पश्चिमी भाग में 3,775 किलोमीटर तथा पूर्वी भाग में 2,778 किलोमीटर की दूरी तय करेगी। रैली में अर्धसैनिक बल के कुल 125 साइकिल चालक भाग लेंगे, जिनमें 14 महिलाएं भी शामिल हैं। यह रैली सात मार्च को एक साथ गुजरात और पश्चिम बंगाल से शुरू होगी और 25 दिनों बाद

31 मार्च को कन्याकुमारी में समापन होगा। सीआइएसएफ के अतिरिक्त महानिदेशक पद्माकर रानीपसे ने बताया कि शाह सात मार्च को तमिलनाडु के रानीपेट जिले के थक्कोलम में सीआइएसएफ दिवस परेड के मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में समारोह में शिरकत करेंगे।

गुजरात में समान नागरिक संहिता समिति ने शुरू किया काम

गांधीनगर, 4 मार्च (भाषा)।

समान नागरिक संहिता (यूसीसी) का मसविदा तैयार करने के लिए गुजरात सरकार द्वारा गठित उच्चस्तरीय समिति सार्वजनिक परामर्श करेगी और महिलाओं के लिए समान अधिकारों तथा बच्चों की देखभाल पर ध्यान केंद्रित करेगी। यह जानकारी समिति अध्यक्ष न्यायमूर्ति

(सेवानिवृत्त) रंजना देसाई ने मंगलवार को दी। पांच सदस्यीय यूसीसी समिति ने गुजरात की राजधानी में अपनी पहली बैठक की जहां न्यायमूर्ति देसाई ने जनता, सरकारी एजंसियों, गैर सरकारी संगठनों (एनजीओ), सामाजिक

समुहों, समुदायों, धार्मिक संगठनों और राजनीतिक दलों से यूसीसी के संबंध में सुझाव लेने के लिए एक वेब पोर्टल की शुरुआत की। उच्चतम न्यायालय की पूर्व न्यायाधीश न्यायमूर्ति देसाई ने मंगलवार को संवाददाताओं से कहा. 'हमारा काम आज से शुरू होता है। समिति को गुजरात में समान नागरिक संहिता की

आवश्यकता का आकलन करने का काम सौंपा गया है।

तेज हवाओं से नौका पलटी, दो की मौत

राजमुंदरी (आंध्र प्रदेश), 4 मार्च (भाषा)।

पर्वी गोदावरी जिले में तेज हवाओं के कारण गोदावरी नदी पर नौका के असंतुलित होकर एक तरफ झूक जाने से उसमें सवार दो व्यक्तियों की डूबकर मौत हो गई। पुलिस के एक अधिकारी ने मंगलवार को यह जानकारी दी। राजमुदरी सेंट्रल के पुलिस उपाधीक्षक (डीएसपी) के . रमेश बाबू ने बताया कि दुर्घटना सोमवार शाम करीब साढ़े सात बजे हुई और मृतकों के शव मंगलवार देर रात करीब एक बजे बरामद किए गए। बाब ने बताया, 'गोदावरी नदी के बीच में स्थित एक द्वीप 'ब्रिज लंका' से 12 लोग देशी नौका में सवार होकर लौट रहे थे, तभी यह हादसा हुआ। पुलिस का मानना है कि यह समूह एक निजी कार्यक्रम में शिरकत करने के लिए ब्रिज आइलैंड गया था। इस द्वीप में बहुत से लोग टंडी हवाओं का लुत्फ उटाने के लिए आते हैं। नौका को मात्र मछली पकड़ने की अनुमति है और उसमें लोगों की सवारी करवाने की अनुमति नहीं है।

प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी ने जानवरों के प्रति दया भाव का आग्रह किया

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च

प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी ने मंगलवार को वन्यजीव संरक्षण, बचाव और पुनर्वास की अनूठी पहल 'वनतारा' की सराहना करते हुए लोगों से जानवरों के प्रति दया का भाव रखने का आगृह किया। प्रधानमंत्री ने रविवार को गुजरात के जामनगर जिले में पशु बचाव, संरक्षण और पुनर्वास केंद्र वनतारा का दौरा किया था। करीब 3,000 एकड क्षेत्र में फैला वनतारा, रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज के जामनगर रिफाइनरी काम्प्लेक्स में स्थित है। यह

हाथियों और वन्यजीवों के कल्याण के लिए समर्पित एक बचाव केंद्र है, जो दुर्व्यवहार और शोषण से बचाए गए जानवरों को अभयारण्य, पुनर्वास और चिकित्सा देखभाल प्रदान करता है। मोदी ने 'एक्स' पर एक पोस्ट में कहा, 'वनतारा नामक एक अनूठी वन्यजीव संरक्षण, बचाव और पुनर्वास पहल का उद्घाटन किया, जो पारिस्थितिकी स्थिरता और वन्यजीव

कल्याण को बढ़ावा देते हुए जीव-जन्तुओं के लिए एक सुरक्षित पर्यावास प्रदान करती है।' उन्होंने कहा, 'मैं इस अत्यंत सहानुभूतिशील प्रयास के लिए अनंत अंबानी और उनकी पूरी टीम की सराहना करता हूं।

व्यापार युद्ध की आशंका के बीच सूचकांक में 96 अंक की गिरावट

विदेशी निवेशकों की लगातार पूंजी निकासी से स्थानीय बाजार पर पड़ा असर

फिनसर्व, एचसीएल टेक्नोलाजीज, नेस्ले इंडिया,

फार्मास्युटिकल्स, इन्फोसिस, मारुति सुजुकी इंडिया,

मुंबई, ४ मार्च (भाषा)।

मानक सूचकांक मंगलवार को लगातार तीसरे कारोबारी सत्र में नुकसान में रहा और यह 96 अंक की गिरावट के साथ 73.000 अंक के नीचे बंद हुआ। शुल्क युद्ध को लेकर चिंता गहराने और विदेशी संस्थागत निवेशकों की लगातार पूंजी निकासी के बीच वैश्विक बाजारों में गिरावट का असर स्थानीय बाजार पर भी पडा।

तीस शेयरों पर आधारित मानक सूचकांक 96.01 अंक यानी 0.13 फीसद की गिरावट के साथ 72,989.93 अंक पर बंद हुआ। कारोबार के दौरान एक समय यह 452.4 अंक तक लुढ़क गया था। तीस शेयरों में से 18 नुकसान में, जबिक 12 लाभ में रहे। नेशनल स्टाक एक्सचेंज (एनएसई) के मानक सचकांक निफ्टी में लगातार 10वें कारोबारी सत्र में गिरावट रही और यह 36.65 अंक यानी 0.17 फीसद की गिरावट के साथ 22,082.65 अंक पर बंद हुआ। निफ्टी 22,000 अंक के नीचे 21,974.45 अंक पर खुला लेकिन बाद में इसने

तीस शेयरों पर आधारित मानक सूचकांक 96.01 अंक यानी 0.13 फीसद की गिरावट के साथ 72,989.93 अंक पर बंद हुआ। कारोबार के दौरान एक समय यह 452 4 अंक तक लुढ़क गया था।

कुछ नुकसान की भरपाई कर ली। शेयरों में बजाज सूचकांक 1.28 फीसद चढ़ा, जबिक मझोली कंपनियों का मिडकैप 0.08 फीसद मजबूत हुआ। एशियन पेंट्स, भारती एयरटेल, सन स्टाक्स बाक्स के वरिष्ठ तकनीकी विश्लेषक अमेया रणदिवे ने कहा, एफआइआइ की बिकवाली और टाइटन, हिंदुस्तान यूनिलीवर और रिलायंस रूस और यूक्रेन के बीच जारी तनाव के बीच इंडस्ट्रीज प्रमुख रूप से नुकसान में रहे। दूसरी भारतीय मानक सूचकांक निचले स्तर पर खुले। अमेरिकी राष्ट्रपति के कनाडा और मेक्सिको पर 25 ओर, लाभ में रहने वाले शेयरों में भारतीय स्टेट फीसद शुल्क और 'फेंटेनाइल' मुद्दे पर चीनी आयात बैंक, जोमैटो, टाटा कंसल्टेंसी सर्विसेज, अदाणी पर 20 फीसद शुल्क की पृष्टि से उत्पन्न वैश्विक पोर्ट्स, पावर ग्रिड, टाटा स्टील और एचडीएफसी बैंक शामिल हैं। बाजार में गिरावट के बावजूद छोटी व्यापार युद्ध की चिंताओं के कारण बाजार धारणा प्रभावित हुई। कंपनियों के शेयरों से जुड़ा बीएसई स्मालकैप

तैयार करेंगे हाइड्रोजन : गडकरी

नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च।

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो

केंद्रीय सड़क एवं परिवहन मंत्री नितिन गडकरी ने मंगलवार को कहा कि पराली से मिथेन और मिथेन से हाइड्रोजन तैयार की जाएगी। यह पहल देश में पराली से हाइड्रोजन बनाने का रास्ता खोलेगा और इसका सीधा लाभ पर्यावरण को होगा। गडकरी मंगलवार को दिल्ली में हाइड्रोजन वाहनों के परीक्षण कार्यक्रम को संबोधित कर रहे थे। उन्होंने कहा कि आने वाले समय में भारत हाइड्रोजन बिक्री करने वाले देशों में शामिल होगा। टाटा कंपनी ने हाइड्रोजन से चलने वाले इन वाहनों को तैयार किया है।

गडकरी ने कहा कि हर साल 22 लाख करोड़ रुपए खर्च कर ईधन लेकर आना होता है और वर्तमान में प्रयोग हो रहे ईंधन की वजह से प्रदूषण भी होता है। अभी केवल 16 हाइड्रोजन से चलने वाली गाड़ियों के परीक्षण की अनुमित दी गई है और यह परीक्षण ग्रीन हाइड्रोजन कार्यक्रम के तहत इंडियन आयल कंपनी के साथ होगा। इन वाहनों का परीक्षण 24 माह तक मुंबई, पुणे दिल्ली एनसीआर, सूरत, बडोदरा, जमशेदपुर

भारत विश्व चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था मंच की मेजबानी का इच्छ्रक : भूपेंद्र

नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च (भाषा)।

केंद्रीय पर्यावरण मंत्री भूपेंद्र यादव ने मंगलवार को कहा कि भारत विश्व चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था मंच' के 2026 संस्करण की मेजबानी का इच्छुक है। इसके साथ ही उन्होंने कहा कि भारत चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था पर एशिया-प्रशांत देशों के साथ मजबत सहयोग का समर्थक है।

'चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था' उत्पादन और उपभोग का ऐसा माडल है, जिसमें यथासंभव विद्यमान सामग्रियों एवं उत्पादों को साझा करना, पट्टे पर देना, दोबारा इस्तेमाल, मरम्मत, नवीनीकरण और पुनर्चक्रण शामिल है। यादव ने जयपुर में आयोजित एक कार्यक्रम में कहा कि चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था 250 साल पहले आई औद्योगिक क्रांति के बाद से सबसे बड़े व्यावसायिक

बदलावों में से एक को संचालित कर सकती है। उन्होंने कहा, 'हर साल आयोजित होने वाला चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था (डब्लूसीईएफ) इस साल ब्राजील के साओ पाउलो में हो रहा है। भारत ने वर्ष 2026 के सम्मेलन की मेजबानी की इच्छा जताई है।

वर्ष 2030 और उसके बाद के भविष्य को देखते हुए इस मंच को वास्तविक बदलाव लाना चाहिए। डब्ल्सीईएफ का आयोजन फिनलैंड और उसके नवाचारी कोष सिटा की वैश्विक पहल है। यह फोरम चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था से जडे बिंदओं पर चर्चा के लिए दुनिया भर के कारोबारी प्रमुखों, नीति-निर्माताओं और विशेषज्ञों को एक साथ लाता है। यादव ने कहा कि भारत अपने मजबूत पनर्चक्रण उद्योग के साथ चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था पर एशिया-प्रशांत देशों के साथ सहयोग करने के लिए तैयार है।

मुंबई, ४ मार्च (भाषा)।

न्यायमर्ति शिवकमार डिगे की एकल पीठ ने कहा कि विशेष अदालत का एक मार्च का आदेश बिना विस्तुत जानकारी के और आरोपी की कोई विशेष भूमिका बताए बिना मशीनी तरीके से पारित किया गया था। हाई कोर्ट ने कहा,'सभी संबंधित पक्षों को सुनने और विशेष अदालत के आदेश का अध्ययन करने के बाद, ऐसा प्रतीत होता है कि

मामले में शिकायतकर्ता (सपन श्रीवास्तव) को याचिकाओं के जवाब में हलफनामा दाखिल करने के लिए चार सप्ताह का समय दिया गया।

आदेश विस्तृत जानकारी के बिना और आवेदकों (बुच और अन्य) को कोई विशेष भूमिका दिए बिना पारित कर दिया गया है।' अदालत ने कहा कि इसलिए आदेश पर अगली तारीख तक रोक लगाई जाती है। मामले में शिकायतकर्ता (सपन श्रीवास्तव) को याचिकाओं के जवाब में हलफनामा दाखिल करने के लिए चार सप्ताह का समय दिया जाता है। हाई कोर्ट का यह निर्णय बुच, सेबी के तीन वर्तमान पर्णकालिक निदेशकों- अश्विनी भाटिया अनंत नारायण जी और कमलेश चंद्र वार्ष्णेय

बीएसई के प्रबंध निदेशक और मुख्य कार्यपालक अधिकारी सुंदररामन राममूर्ति और इसके पूर्व चेयरमैन तथा जनहित निदेशक प्रमोद अग्रवाल द्वारा दायर याचिकाओं पर आया। याचिकाओं में विशेष अदालत द्वारा पारित आदेश को रद्द करने की अपील

इसमें भ्रष्टाचार निरोधक ब्यूरो (एसीबी) को 1994 में बीएसई में एक कंपनी को सूचीबद्ध करते समय कथित रूप से धोखाधडी के आरोप लगाए गए थे और एफआइआर दर्ज करने की अपील की गई थी। याचिकाओं में कहा गया है कि यह आदेश अवैध और मनमाना है। विशेष अदालत ने मीडिया रिपोर्टर सपन श्रीवास्तव की शिकायत पर यह आदेश पारित किया था, जिसमें आरोपियों द्वारा बड़े पैमाने पर वित्तीय धोखाधडी, नियामकीय उल्लंघन और भ्रष्टाचार से जुड़े कथित अपराधों की जांच की अपील की गई थी।

महाराष्ट्र : धनंजय मुंडे के इस्तीफे से सियासत गरमाई

राउत ने कहा, सरपंच की हत्या के 24 घंटे के भीतर मुख्यमंत्री को इस्तीफा मांगना चाहिए था

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च।

महाराष्ट्र में राकांपा नेता धनंजय मुंडे के मंत्रिमंडल से इस्तीफा देने के बाद राज्य में सियासी माहौल गरमा गया है।

विपक्ष दलों ने कहा कि सरपंच संतोष देशमुख की हत्या के मामले में मुख्य आरोपी वाल्मिक कराड से मुंडे के करीबी संबंध होने के आरोप लगे हैं। इसके बावजूद मुख्यमंत्री ने उन्हें तत्काल मंत्री पद से हटाने की जरूरत नहीं समझी। वहीं,

राउत ने कहा कि सरपच देशमुख के साथ हुई बर्बरता की तस्वीरें सामने आने के बाद बढ़ते दबाव और जन-आक्रोश भड़कने के कारण राकांपा नेता मुंडे को मंत्री पद से इस्तीफा देना पड़ा।

राकांपा के नेता छगन भुजबल ने कहा कि धनंजय ने नैतिक आधार पर मंत्री पद से इस्तीफा दिया है। शिवसेना (उबाठा) के सांसद संजय राउत ने मंगलवार को कहा कि महाराष्ट्र के मुख्यमंत्री देवेंद्र फडणवीस को सरपंच संतोष देशमुख की हत्या के 24

घंटे के भीतर ही धनंजय मुंडे से इस्तीफा मांग लेना चाहिए था। उन्होंने मुंडे के इस्तीफे में देरी के लिए राज्य सरकार की आलोचना की। राउत ने संवाददाताओं से बातचीत में कहा कि सरपंच देशमुख के साथ हुई बर्बरता की तस्वीरें सामने आने के

बाद बढते दबाव और जन-आक्रोश भड़कने के कारण राकांपा नेता मुंडे को मंत्री पद से इस्तीफा देना पड़ा। राउत ने सरपंच की हत्या से पहले की घटना से जुड़े वीडियो व तस्वीरों को परेशान करने वाला बताया और दावा किया कि मुख्यमंत्री व उपमुख्यमंत्री अजित पवार दोनों ने वीडियो को सार्वजनिक होने से पहले देखा था। अगर मुख्यमंत्री ने नैतिकता के आधार पर मुंडे का इस्तीफा मांगा होता, तो हम दृढ़ता से कह सकते थे कि उन्होंने न्याय किया है।

ट्रंप की रणनीतिक सरकारी रिजर्व की घोषणा के बाद क्रिप्टो की कीमतें उछलीं

वाशिंगटन, ४ मार्च (एपी)।

अमेरिका के राष्ट्रपति डोनाल्ड ट्रंप की आश्चर्यजनक घोषणा के बाद क्रिप्टोकरेंसी की कीमतों में थोड़ी तेजी आई। टंप ने कहा कि वे चाहते हैं कि अमेरिकी सरकार रणनीतिक रिजर्व कोष में विभिन्न प्रकार की डिजिटल परिसंपत्तियों को खरीदे और रखे। यह घोषणा ट्रंप के अस्थिर क्रिप्टोकरेंसी की कीमतों को अपने सार्वजनिक समर्थन के बैरोमीटर के रूप में उपयोग करने के बढ़ते प्रयासों को उजागर करती है।

टंप ने रविवार को सोशल मीडिया पर कहा कि उनकी सरकार एक 'क्रिप्टो स्ट्रैटेजिक रिजर्व' बनाने की दिशा में काम कर रही है. जिसमें कम-ज्ञात क्रिप्टोकरेंसी एक्सआरपी, सोलाना और कार्डानो शामिल होंगे। बाद में उन्होंने एक और पोस्ट के साथ कहा कि उनके नियोजित रिजर्व में बिटकाइन और ईथर भी शामिल होंगे। पिछले सप्ताह 80,000 डालर से नीचे गिरने के बाद बिटकाइन करीब 95,000 डालर तक पहुंच गया।

'द्विपक्षीय निवेश समझौते का नया प्रारूप वैश्विक परिवेश के अनुरूप होगा'

नई दिल्ली, 4 मार्च (भाषा)।

मुख्य आर्थिक सलाहकार (सीईए) वी अनंत नागेश्वरन ने मंगलवार को कहा कि द्विपक्षीय निवेश संधि (बीआइटी) के नए माडल की बातें भारत के संप्रभु अधिकारों की सुरक्षा करते हुए बदलते वैश्विक निवेश परिवेश की मांगों के साथ बेहतर ढंग से जुड़ी होंगी।

उन्होंने बजट बाद 'भारत को निवेश अनुकूल बनाना' विषय पर आयोजित वेबिनार को संबोधित करते हुए कहा कि आधुनिक चुनौतियों को प्रतिबिंबित करने के लिए द्विपक्षीय निवेश ढांचे को संशोधित किया जा रहा है। नागेश्वरन ने कहा कि भारत के माडल बीआइटी की अंतिम समीक्षा के बाद से लगभग 10 साल बीत चुके हैं। उसके बाद से, वैश्विक निवेश परिवेश और अंतरराष्ट्रीय कानूनी व्यवस्था महत्वपूर्ण रूप से विकसित हुई है।

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote. He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good... the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

CEC to poll officers: Meet parties and resolve issues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE New Delhi, March 4

AT A TIME when Opposition parties have alleged irregularities in the electoral rolls, Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar on Tuesday asked all state Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs), District Election Officers (DEOs) and Electoral Registration Officers (EROs) to meet political parties regularly to resolve their issues.

Addressing the first CEOs' conference since assuming office last month, Kumar asked all officials to work in a transparent manner and as per the framework of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 & 1951, the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 and the EC's instructions.

"He directed officials to be approachable and responsive to political parties. He added that all-party meetings at all statutory levels be held regularly to resolve any issues within the existing statutory framework by the concerned competent authority i.e. ERO or DEO or CEO," an EC statement said.

Kumar asked the CEOs to submit an action-taken report by March 31. The CEC also said that the Booth Level Officers should be trained to behave courteously with electors, while also making sure that no electoral officer is "intimidated by anyone using false claims".

Delhi HC grants bail to Michel

SOHINI GHOSH New Delhi, March 4

THE DELHI HIGH Court on Tuesday granted bail to Christian Michel James — one of the alleged middlemen in the AgustaWestland VVIP chopper case who was extradited from the UAE in 2018 - in amoney laundering case registered by the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

This comes about a fortnight after the Supreme Court granted bail to Michel in a corruption case registered by the CBI in 2013.

was likely to be released from judicial custody after the trial court imposes the necessary bail conditions -- subject to fulfilment of these conditions, including payment of surety and bail bonds. He is expected to move the trial court on Wednesday for imposition of bail conditions.

The HC on Tuesday reiterated that provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine an accused for an indefinite period.

Noting that Michel has been in custody for "over six years and two months", which is "alarmingly close to the maximum punishment" of seven years, without even being held guilty, the court Supreme Court had also said further incarceration would only render the "entire purpose of a trial meaningless"."...this court is of the view that while Section 45 of PMLA imposes stringent conditions for the grant of bail, constitutional courts, including the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have Michel's lawyers said he also emphasised time and again that this provision cannot be interpreted in a manner to confine the accused in judicial custody for an indefinite period of time," Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma said in her verdict.

The case "presents an exceptional situation" where the accused has been in custody for over six years but the trial has "not even commenced due to the incomplete investigation," the court said. "Such prolonged incarceration, without any foreseeable conclusion of trial, would infringe upon the applicant's fundamental right to a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution."

On February 18, the pointed to the delay in trial while granting bail to Michel in the CBI case.

Intern scheme may tap local talent

EXPERTS SAID THAT more changes are needed in the second round of the scheme which is currently under way. "The problem is that the shortlisting is being done by the ministry, and the candidates which are referred to the companies often don't fit the bill. The government should also transfer the shortlisting job to the companies," said spokesperson of a large employer on condition of anonymity. Sources said that many companies are struggling to benefit from the scheme because of "a lack of ownership" at the company level and poor assessment of the workforce gap. Participating companies are facing problems with training of the candidates due to the geographic constraints, as the stipend amount appears insufficient to motivate interstate relocation, creating a mismatch between available opportunities and candidate mobility, they said.

FE reported on Monday that the government has urged companies to create in-house PMIS cells in order to streamline the scheme implementation and boost intake of the interns.

In the first round, only 28,141 candidates accepted internship offers even though companies had offered 82,077 internships. More than 43% of these opportunities were offered in five states — Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Haryana. The candidates from other

per month in addition to a onetime allowance of ₹6,000, explained the sources. An official said that of the 28,141 interns, who accepted the offer less than 20,000 are interning on the ground.

Pallavi Jha, CMD, Dale Carnegie India said that localising the internship programme could improve efficiency by addressing barriers, potentially increasing participation rates and reducing drop-out percentages. "A regionally-focused approach might better align opportunities with local industry needs while reducing financial burdens on participants,

she added. Jaideep Kewalramani, chief operating officer, TeamLease Edtech, said that talent mobility is a factor that organisations have to deal with, and the same is true with interns as well. "The adoption of the PMIS has to be delinked from this factor to some extent as the idea of an internship is to offer exposure and hands-on experience to students who are in the vicinity of the industry," he said. In the current financial year, the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has targeted to provide 125,000 internship opportunities to candidates in 500 partner companies. The partner companies have been selected on the basis of average Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) expenditure in the last three years, and covers a large number of diverse sectors, including aviation and defence, automotive, banking and financial services, chemical industry, oil, gas and energy etc.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

New Delhi

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently.

In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.

ALOK DESHPANDE Mumbai, March 4

NCP MINISTER DHANANJAY Munde resigned Tuesday after leaked photos showing allegedly the atrocities and torture inflicted on a Beed sarpanch before his murder proved the tipping point. Chief minister Devendra Fadnavis drove down to hold a late-night meeting Mondaywith deputy chief minister and NCP president Ajit Pawar, where the decision was taken in the presence of Munde.

Monday also marked the start of the first Budget Session of the new Mahayuti government, elected in November last year. Munde's close association with one of the accused in Massajog sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh's murder, who was chargesheeted just days earlier, was sure to come up in the House, along with the conviction of another NCP minister, Manikrao Kokate, in an old case.

The resignation of Munde will take some of the heat off the Fadnavis government, which has also been under pressure from within for the minister's dismissal to ensure an "impartial probe" into the murder on December 9 last year.

Dhananjay Munde

The CID chargesheet naming Munde aide Walmik Karad, among others, was filed on February 27. Karad stands accused of trying to extort money from a power company, leading allegedly to an altercation with Deshmukh and his murder. Beed, under which Massajog falls, has long been a stronghold of the Munde family.

On Monday, several Marathi channels telecast photos allegedly showing how Deshmukh was tortured by a group before his death.

In a post on X after his resignation, Munde said he had been "deeply saddened" by the photos and cited ill-health as one of the reasons for stepping down. "It has been my firm

demand since day one that the accused in the brutal murder of the late Santosh Deshmukh... should be given the strictest punishment. Seeing the photos that surfaced yesterday, I was deeply saddened," Munde wrote.

He added: "The investigation into this matter has been completed and chargesheet has been filed in court. Also, a judicial inquiry is proposed. With respect to my morality and as my health has not been good... the doctor has advised me to undergo treatment for the next few days. Therefore, also for medical reasons, I have submitted my resignation from the Cabinet."

Ajit Pawar, confirming Munde's resignation, also cited "morality" as the reason for the decision.

Fadnavis announced Munde's resignation as he entered the Assembly Tuesday, and rushed in without taking questions from the media.

While the Fadnavis government will hope that the resignation takes the sting out of the Opposition's attacks, a Cabinet minister having to step down is a setback to the Mahayuti that had been on a high after the massive mandate it received less than three months ago.

Job cuts hit Renault arm

THE MAIN OFFICE of the centre is at Mahindra World City on the outskirts of Chennai. While additional offices are located in Hyderabad and Bengaluru.

According to its website, RNTBCI's workforce includes over 5,000 employees in core engineering, 2,800 in the vehicle department, and the remainder in global business operations, software technologies, and other functions. The timing of this restructuring aligns with major upheavals at Nissan. The collapse of the Honda-Nissan merger in February derailed plans to create the world's fourth-largest automaker, behind Toyota, Volkswagen and

Hyundai. With the deal off the table, Nissan now faces the challenge of revitalising its business independently.

In late 2023, Nissan Motor

Co announced plans to cut 9,000 jobs globally and reduce manufacturing capacity by 20% to counter mounting losses and growing competition from Chinese automakers. So far, no Nissan group entities in India had been significantly affected. The Renault-Nissan Alliance operates a manufacturing facility in Chennai — Renault Nissan Automotive India, — which produces vehicles for both domestic and export markets.
